

Ethnohistorical collection

Beaver pelt

<https://collections.pacmusee.qc.ca/en/objects/beaver-pelt-2021-040-002/>

Collections / beaver pelt

CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license

Beaver skin stretched over a frame made from a wooden branch. The skin is held in place by commercial leather straps. A gold medallion affixed to the skin reads “Fourrure Canada” and is accompanied by a coat of arms. The hide is not fully processed, as the work has not been completed.

Accession Number 2021.40.02

Date 1979 an

Materials fur, beaver, skin, sinew, wood

Technique tense

Measurements 69 x 86 cm

© Pointe-à-Callière Collection, donation by Jean-Yves Deslauriers, 2021.040.002

Photo by Michel Julien