The glass is complete, except for two small chips on the rim of the foot. It comprises a bowl, a stem and a foot. The bowl is tall and conical, with an extended rim and a flat base. The stem is solid and shaped like a double spindle separated by a flattened central knob. The foot is circular and conical in profile. The underside has a slight off-center circular depression; the decoration is carved. It is geometric. The lower third of the bowl is adorned with wide flutes and a domed top. The base of the bowl is adorned with two recessed plateau rings. The stem features a flattened central knob separating the two spindle-shaped stem sections with flat knob ends.
