

Bottle

<https://collections.pacmusee.qc.ca/en/objects/bottle-2018-010-0678/>

Collections / From the Conquest to the founding of Canada / bottle

CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license

The bottle is complete. It is cylindrical in shape. In cross-section, it has a slightly domed wall, an angular shoulder and a high neck with an angular bearing at mid-height, ending in a neck with a domed lip and domed top. The wall is tapered towards the base, which is flared with a plain contour; the bottom is flat; None, except for the stepped neck and the small groove above the step.

Accession Number 2018.10.678

Date 1800 c

Materials ceramic, coarse stoneware Bray-Beauvaisis-Loire

Measurements 14,6 x 3,053 cm

© Collection Pointe-à-Callière, Paul-Gaston L'Anglais fonds, 2018.010.0678

Photo by René Bouchard

On display