The bowl is complete. It is circular in shape, with a truncated cone-shaped cross-section and a flat base. It has a flat wing with a slightly rounded rim and a beveled base. The body is red and covered with a colorless glaze everywhere except under the bottom. There are three small holes arranged in a triangle on the base; the decoration is in white slip with a device, and is on the inside of the bowl. The decoration occupies the inner wing, wall and base. On the rim, the decoration consists of a broad, wavy line. On the wall, the decoration consists of four leafy motifs between two broad strokes; the lower part of the wall is decorated with a wavy stroke. The background is decorated with an off-center, stylized plant motif.
