The bottle is complete. It is square with rounded corners. The sides are tapered at the sock and domed at the top; the shoulder is rounded, the neck short and tapered at the top. The neck is short and tapered upwards, topped by a high lip with a flat top. There is a glass burr under the neck. There are two vertical mold lines on opposite corners, starting at the base and extending through the center of the shoulder to below the neck. The base has a rounded fulcrum; the center is recessed and flat. It features a small, rounded, swollen central nipple and an off-center, square indentation, as well as a molded mark in relief: K.; The decoration is molded: the walls and corners feature fine, vertical, parallel striations. The decoration is geometric.
