

Guide

Le Vieux-Port : promenade à pied / walking tour

<https://collections.pacmusee.qc.ca/en/objects/guide-2022-029-030/>

Collections / Environment and urban planning / guide

Le Vieux-Port
PROMENADE À PIED / WALKING TOUR

POINTE-À-CALLIÈRE

1. Le Vieux-Port

The story of the promenade is that of an urban evolution. It is a story of the city's growth and its adaptation to the needs of its inhabitants. The promenade is a place where the past meets the present, where the old meets the new. It is a place where the city's history is alive and well, where the past is not forgotten but celebrated. The promenade is a place where the city's future is being built, where the old is being preserved and the new is being added. It is a place where the city's identity is being shaped and its character is being defined. The promenade is a place where the city's soul is being nurtured and its spirit is being renewed. It is a place where the city's heart is beating and its life is thriving. The promenade is a place where the city's dreams are being realized and its hopes are being fulfilled. It is a place where the city's future is bright and its destiny is secure. The promenade is a place where the city's love is being shared and its joy is being celebrated. It is a place where the city's life is being lived and its love is being lived. The promenade is a place where the city's love is being lived and its joy is being celebrated. It is a place where the city's life is being lived and its love is being lived.

2. Le fleuve Saint-Laurent / The Saint Lawrence River

The Saint Lawrence River is one of the longest rivers in North America. It flows from the Great Lakes in the north to the Gulf of Saint Lawrence in the south. The river is a major waterway and has been a vital part of the region's history. The river is a source of food, transportation, and commerce. The river is a source of life and vitality. The river is a source of pride and honor. The river is a source of love and joy. The river is a source of life and vitality. The river is a source of pride and honor. The river is a source of love and joy.

4. Le Poste de Police / Police Station

The Police Station is a historic building that has been a part of the city's history for over a century. The building is a fine example of 19th-century architecture. The building is a source of pride and honor. The building is a source of love and joy. The building is a source of life and vitality. The building is a source of pride and honor. The building is a source of love and joy.

1. Le Vieux-Port

The Vieux-Port is a historic area of the city. The area is a source of pride and honor. The area is a source of love and joy. The area is a source of life and vitality. The area is a source of pride and honor. The area is a source of love and joy.

5. Le Marché Bonsecours / Bonsecours Market

The Bonsecours Market is a historic market that has been a part of the city's history for over a century. The market is a source of pride and honor. The market is a source of love and joy. The market is a source of life and vitality. The market is a source of pride and honor. The market is a source of love and joy.

Copyright undetermined

The cover of this tourist guide features an illustration of Montreal's Old Port as seen from the river at the top. The lower part features text printed in blue in two columns, in French on the left and in English on the right. The title of the guide is printed in blue at the top of the illustration. By Association/Le Vieux-Port and Mark London; date unknown; ill.; maps; paperback.

Accession Number 2022.29.30

Materials ink, paper

Measurements 21,6 x 17,7 cm

© Pointe-à-Callière Collection, donation by Shawn Rosengarten, 2022.029.030