

Ink cup

<https://collections.pacmusee.qc.ca/en/objects/ink-cup-2018-010-0536/>

Collections / From federalism to the end of the Second World War / ink cup

CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license

The cup is complete. It is truncated cone-shaped, with a wide, plain rim, a slightly domed face and a flat underside. The bottom is flat, and the underside is unglazed; the decoration is hand-painted in two-tone blue and red. The decoration is visible on the top of the bucket and around its rim. The decoration on the top consists of four small segments of blue latticework adorned with red beads, each separated by a pair of plant motifs. The peripheral decoration is a blue-painted net.

Accession Number 2018.10.536

Date 1900 c

Materials ceramic, white earthenware

Measurements 3,5 x 5,032 cm

© Collection Pointe-à-Callière, Paul-Gaston L'Anglais fonds, 2018.010.0536

Photo by RBPHOTO