The terrine is complete. It is circular in shape. In cross-section, the wall flares out towards the rim, which has a swollen lip and a small spout. The base is flared, and the bottom is flat. There is a slight protrusion under the inner rim. There is an engraved mark below the base, in three registers: Collection Nouvelle-France Chambly Québec ; None, except for the white slip applied to the body, under the green-colored glaze.
