The plate is complete; there is a small missing edge. It is circular with a plain rim. On the front, the rim slopes slightly inwards, and the wall slopes towards the bottom, which is flat. On the reverse, the plate rests on a milled foot, the base of which is unglazed; the bottom is recessed and flat. The body is beige, and the object is covered with a bluish-white enamel. There are three traces of a pernette in a triangular pattern on the reverse. The enamel is shiny. There is a flaw in the enamel on the marli. The enamel around the rim has partially disappeared ; The decoration is hand-painted in cobalt blue underglaze. It is floral in style. The decoration occupies the marli and the background. The decoration on the marli consists of four leafy stems, each with two similar flowers; drawn in blue, they are trimmed with superimposed lines. The background decoration is surrounded by a double ring. It consists of leafy stems and flowers, including a star-shaped leaf and a few flowers similar to those painted on the border; an insect twirls around the flowers.
