The plate is complete. The plate is circular, with a plain rim. In cross-section, the rim is in line with the marli, which is elevated and slopes towards the flat bottom. On the reverse, the plate has a truncated cone-shaped cross-section with a flat bottom and a rounded base. Turning rings are visible on the reverse of the plate. The body is pinkish-beige in color and covered with a thin pinkish-white glaze; there are slight flaws in the glaze. Three traces of linear and triangular pernettes are visible under the marli ; The decoration is hand-painted in polychrome. It has been traced and painted in mauve, orange-red and green over glaze. It features a plant motif and has been stenciled. The decoration is painted on the marli, near the rim, and in the center of the background. The border is decorated with two superimposed fillets in mauve. The background is surrounded by a ring in mauve; it features leafy stems painted green with orange highlights, and a central flower painted orange.
