Ethnohistorical collection

Print

Bataille de Louisbourg

https://collections.pacmusee.qc.ca/en/objects/print-2022-026-086/

Collections / Transport and communications / print

Black and white illustration of a naval battle scene between two ships surrounded by boats filled with people. The ship on the left is in flames. In the background, a harbor. Below the illustration, handwritten pen-and-ink text describes the scene.
Engraving based on a painting by Richard Paton of the burning of the French ship Le Prudente during the siege of Louisbourg in 1758.

Accession Number 2022.26.86

Date 1771

Medium and Support ink, paper

Measurements 43,2 x 61,5 cm