

Ethnohistorical collection

Print

Nicolas Vincent Tsawanhonhi

<https://collections.pacmusee.qc.ca/en/objects/print-2022-026-088/>

Collections / From the Conquest to the founding of Canada / print

CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license

Lithograph depicting a standing man wearing a blue tunic with an arrowed sash, and red tights. He is holding a wampum in his right hand and pointing to it. The pictographic data describe the Huron-Wendat territories. He wears two medals around his neck, including the coronation medal in vermeil. Watercolor lithograph on wove paper.

Accession Number 2022.26.88

Artiste / Auteur Hermeindel, Joseph

Date 1825

Medium and Support ink; watercolor, vellum paper

Technique engraving

Measurements 40,5 x 31,39 cm

© Pointe-à-Callière Collection, donation by Dave St-Martin, 2022.026.088