Rocking armchair with three straight scrolls tapering to a napkin fold. The backrest is curved. The armrests are slightly curved and slightly inclined. They are attached to the front posts with mortise and tenon bolts and tiny dowels. The front posts are turned in a dice shape. Flat, rounded rungs with chamfered ends. A front rung has been cut off. The cradles are interlocked, pegged at the back and bolted and nudded at the front. The scrolls are made of elm and the rest of the chair of cherry.
