Collections / From the Conquest to the founding of Canada / tea bowl

The bowl is complete; small chips are missing from the rim. It is circular in shape. The wall is flared at the top, and the rim is straight; its top is plain and slightly beveled on the outside. The wall curves at the base towards the sock, which is flat. The bowl rests on a straight ring foot. The bottom is recessed and flat. The inner base shows a number of small linear marks; the decoration is applied by transfer printing; the decoration is blue. It is floral. The decoration below the inner rim consists of a ribbon with a latticework pattern, the crosses of which are trimmed with four internal spikes and overlap in places. The decoration on the bottom consists of a central medallion made of a chain of circles crossed by a thin ring, from which trifoliate motifs emerge towards the outside; it is adorned in the center with a leafy stem with tendrils. The decoration on the outside consists of three identical leafy and flowering stems in a row. The decoration is slightly blurred. The cut below the rim is visible. There are slight flaws in the decoration inside the bowl.
