Collections / From the Conquest to the founding of Canada / tea bowl

The bowl is complete. It is circular in shape. The wall is flared at the top, with a straight rim and a plain top. The wall curves at the base towards the sock, which is flat. The bowl rests on a straight ring-shaped foot. The bottom is recessed and flat; there is a recessed incised ring below the bottom. The decoration is hand-painted in polychrome of pinkish red, orange, green, black and yellow over glaze. It features a floral motif. Under the inner rim, there is a thin fillet painted in red. The inner base is adorned with a small flower painted red. The main decoration on the outer wall is a large flower painted red and other small ones painted orange, surrounded by stems outlined in black and painted green, and leaves painted in succession, with touches of yellow. The secondary decoration consists of three small flowers painted red and orange, with stems drawn in black and painted green, and leaves painted in succession.
