Season passport for the 1980 Floralties internationales de Montréal. The passport is numbered 317278 and belonged to Francine Lelièvre, whose black-and-white photograph appears on one side. The front of the tri-fold passport, printed in color, features the title of the event, the price, the expiration date, the dates, locations and opening hours, the passport's unique number, the partners and the holder's photograph. On the inside, printed in black on a white background, you'll find information on children's admission, as well as details of the organizers (in French and English). There are also 24 boxes to hold prints for the owner's various visits. Only the first box is stamped. The stamp represents an anchor in a heart and the words “de Kuyper”.
